PROFILE

I'm a recent graduate from the Faculty of Humanities. Majoring in Chinese - Business with a minor in marketing. I'm open-minded, eager to learn new thing, and always ready to accept mistake and correct them. Despite Majoring in Chinese, I always had a strong interest in IT related field. After graduation, I focused my time on learning front-end development, under the supervised of my relative who is an experienced front-end developer. The framework I'm experienced with is React but I'm not limited to it, as I always open to learn a new thing to expand my skill set.
